

HARVARD
T.H. CHAN

SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH

HIS - HIV IMPLEMENTATION SCIENCE PROJECT

Short Course on

Implementation of Human Resources for Health

Interventions: 22nd – 26th/February/2021.

Purpose: The purpose of this five-day course is to build competency of the participants in describing, implementing and analyzing Human Resources for Health Interventions

Learning objectives: After completion of the course, learners will be able to:-

1. To understand the concepts, theories and functions of Human Resources for Health
2. To identify sources or models in Human Resources for Health
3. Identify innovative health work policies and interventions in the Resources for Health
4. To identify and discuss Human Resources for Health options in Tanzania.
5. To understand HRH strategic planning

Target group: Academic staff, researchers and postgraduate students from various universities and health research institutions.

Course content: This course will cover key concepts on Human Resources for Health, sources/mechanisms

The course will also cover practical aspects of both qualitative and quantitative evaluation methods.

Teaching method: The course will involve three teaching methods:

1. Interactive lectures by facilitators from MUHAS and university of Kwazulu-Natal
2. Case studies and examples that the students will be asked to critically assess using the course content
3. Student exercise: development of concept note

Course fees: None. The course is free for the participants. Lunch will be served, but participants will be responsible for their own transport costs.

Preparedness: 20 participants will be invited to allow social distance and the rest will be contacted through online, face masks and sanitizers will be provided.

Date: 22nd – 26th/February/2021

Venue: MUHAS-CHPE Building second floor, MUHAS HARVARD ROOM

Time: 08:00 – 17:00 hours

To apply, send a one page description of a motivation letter, your full name, institution you are affiliated with, designation and your phone number to Ms. Saidah Bakar saidahmohamed2014@gmail.com & Ms. Angela Erick angelaerickkisaka@gmail.com

copying francisaugust6@gmail.com

Application Deadline: Wednesday February 17th 2021, 17:00 hours